

Small steps to success... a BINGO game for writers

Read 1 craft-related book	Send out 5 submission (to agents or editors)	Start a new manuscript	Send work out for critique
Join a community of writers IRL or on social media/the web	Schedule 10 minutes of writing...and do it!	Critique a fellow author's work	Set up a regular writing space
Admit to a family member or friend that you are an author	Read and study 3 new books in your genre/category	Complete a manuscript	Jot down one new story idea
Celebrate a fellow author's success	Buy a new notebook or journal for your ideas	Revise a manuscript	Sob over a rejection, then write or revise (the best revenge)

The rules...

1. We are playing for blackout. Cover the whole board to win.
2. The prize: a critique of the first 10 pages of a novel or a complete picture book manuscript.

And finally... join us each month on the Sub It Club Facebook support group to share your successes both large and small.
